Donation in lieu of volunteering

BSF Alpine fundraising keeps fees as low as possible—an additional $200 per athlete must be raised just to cover program costs. Fundraising events which bring necessary revenue to the club require the assistance of many, much-appreciated volunteers. A "Volunteer Questionnaire" must be completed and submitted with registration. Families should consider making a tax-deductible donation if they will not be able to volunteer.

I have read the BSF Alpine Handbook (see at bridgerskifoundation.com/alpine/alpine_forms) and reviewed it with my athlete. We agree to abide by all policies within the Handbook. I agree to pay the training fees indicated above along with any additional expenses for camps, travel, and all race fees when billed, and understand that late payments will be subject to a $25 late payment fee.
